

THE CHAMPIONSHIP COLLECTION

The Championship Collection is a reciprocal club partnership among Southern California's finest private clubs. Each known for their high quality, championship level golf, the Hacienda Golf Club, Oakmont Country Club, Bear Creek Golf Club, The Saticoy Club, Pauma Valley Country Club, Red Hill Country Club, Bermuda Dunes Country Club and San Diego Country Club have joined together to offer *eligible members an unprecedented value.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Championship Collection is designed to offer an exclusive club-to-club booking experience among some of Southern California's premiere private clubs.

Equity members at each Club will have limited golf and dining privileges at the other clubs within the Collection for no additional fees or dues.

The program provides equity members at each club the privilege of twelve (12) rounds of golf at each of the other participating clubs per calendar year. Some restrictions may apply.

This is an exciting program that provides our members with an exceptional benefit. Please refer to the program details below.

PROGRAM DETAILS

Full golf members of the Clubs will have access to play golf no more than twelve (12) times per calendar year at each participating Club with a maximum of two (2) times in any given month.

No fees will be charged to the Clubs to be part of this agreement and no additional dues will be charged to eligible members. Members have the option to charge back to their account at their home club.

Tee times must be arranged through the personnel at each Club's Golf Shop. Access may be limited by each Club depending on tee-time availability and other events.

Members will not pay green fees or reciprocal accounting charges; however, they will be responsible for all other charges, e.g. golf cart fees, guest fees, food and beverage purchases, merchandise, etc.

A member may bring guests to the other Clubs provided they pay the appropriate guest fee and abide by the host Club's rules and regulations as they pertain to having guests.

Members will not have tournament or social event privileges at the other clubs. Members not adhering to the host Club's rules and regulations will be excluded from the privilege of using this agreement.

*Only primary full golf or full equity members will be eligible to participate in the program. Spouses and dependents are considered guests.
